

Col Michael S. Fay's dedication to excellence is evident through numerous prestigious awards within CAP, including the Exceptional Service Award, Meritorious Service Award, Commander's Commendations from National, Regional, and Wing Commanders, Achievement Awards, and the esteemed Wilson Award, among others.

His commitment extends to crucial roles within CAP committees, serving as a member of the National Awards and Promotion Review Board, chairing the Wing Finance Committee, and contributing as a member of the Wing Awards Review Board and the Wing Membership and Promotion Review Board.

Col Fay achieved Level 5 in the Professional Development Program on 03 Mar 2023, showcasing his commitment to mastery and leadership within CAP. He holds Master ratings in Aerospace, Professional Development, and Cadet Programs, along with a Senior rating in Command and a Technician rating in Logistics.

His extensive service within CAP encompasses a multitude of Duty Positions, including Colorado Wing Commander, Chief of Staff, Director of Cadet Programs, Group Commander, Squadron Commander of three different units, and various leadership roles within multiple units, showcasing his diverse expertise and dedication.

In the intricate tapestry of technology and service, Col Michael S. Fay stands as a paragon. His commitment to nurturing future leaders within CAP while steering complex technological endeavors exemplifies a rare fusion of proficiency, leadership, and service, establishing him as a true trailblazer.