

Special Briefing

Civil Air Patrol's COVID-19 Response

April 20, 2020

*Maj Gen Mark E. Smith
CAP National Commander/CEO*

*Brig Gen Edward Phelka
CAP National Vice Commander*

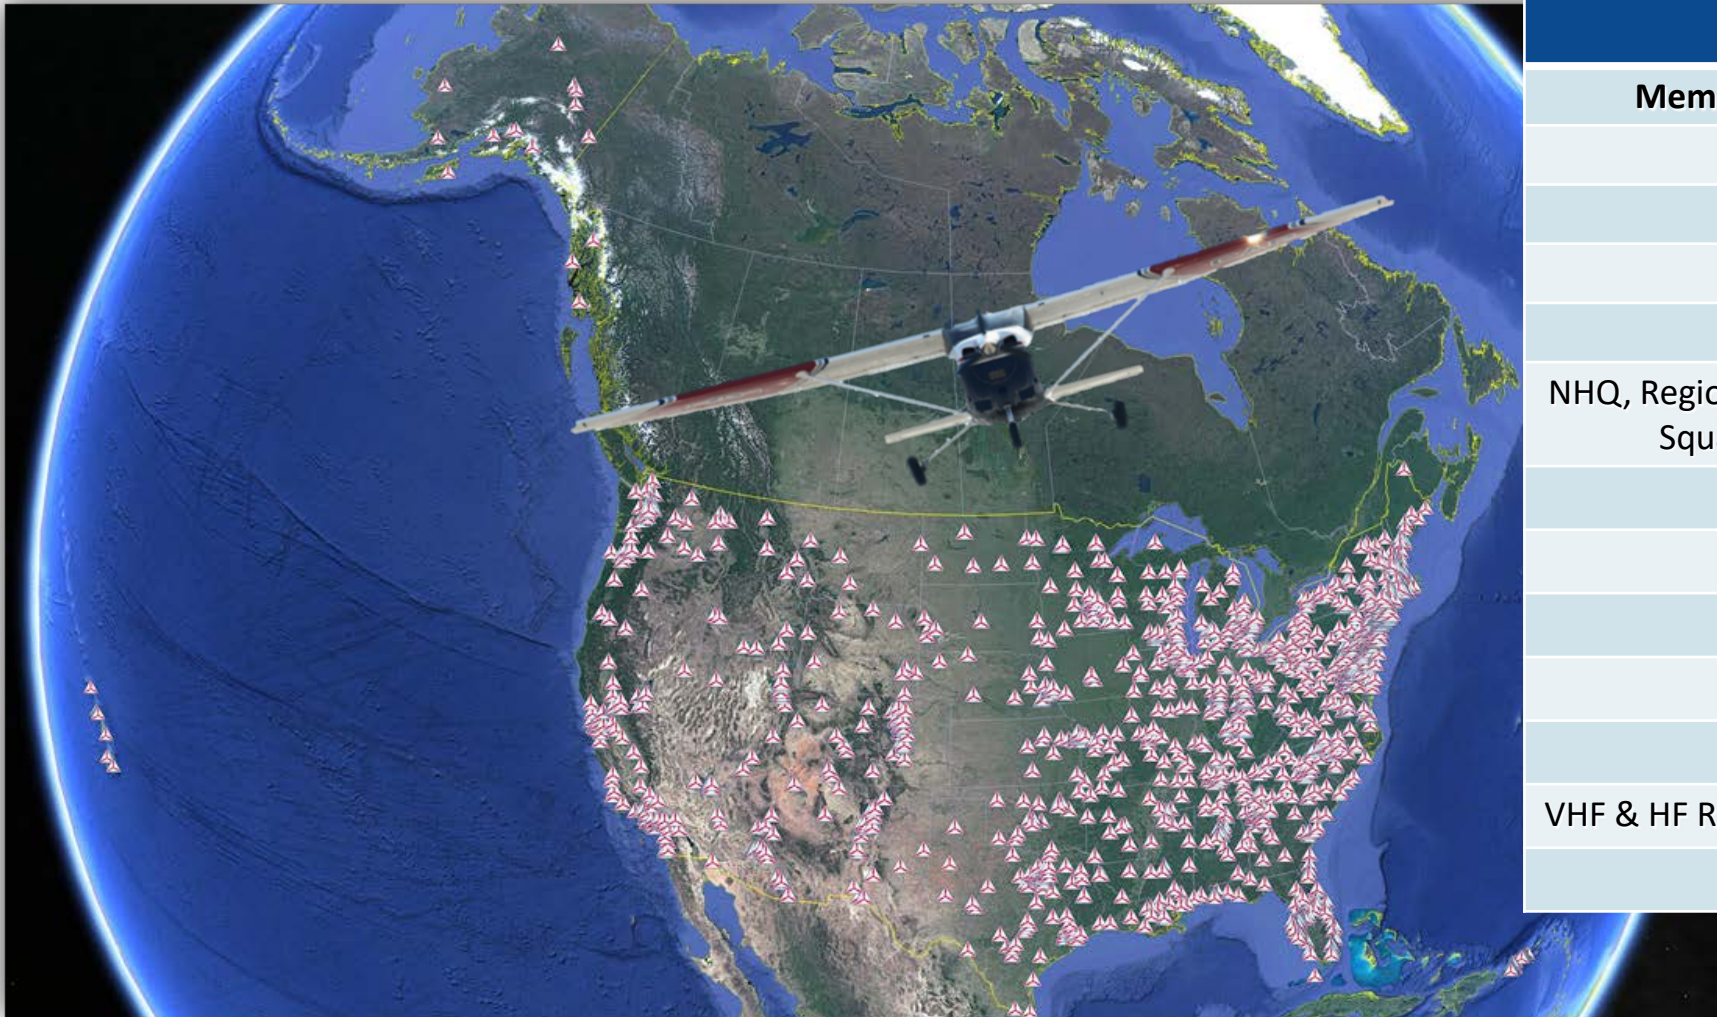

Tonight's Briefing

- You have been specifically invited because you are one of our alumni, friends and donors to Civil Air Patrol
- Some participants may also be CAP members. This briefing is not focused on internal CAP day-to-day topics, but is intended to be an external briefing to those who may not have direct knowledge of our missions
- We will cover:
 - Internal changes at CAP due to the current COVID-19 environment
 - COVID-19 Operational Missions Performed
- Time for Questions and Answers from You - Make sure you find the Q&A box on your screen. You can ask questions throughout the presentation and we have a moderator at the end of the briefing.

Community Focused Missions too...

New Jersey Wing fills in at food bank when there is a shortage of volunteers to meet the demand. CNN included Civil Air Patrol in their coverage.

Members set a new one-day record in the Hillside location's 45-year history for most meals packaged and then surpassed it, preparing 875 cartons on April 2, 1,030 the next day and 1,141 on April 14.
